The horizon leans forward,

Offering you space to place new steps of change.

Excerpt from "On the Pulse of Morning" by Maya Angelou

As we go on in life, when we take two steps forward, we often have to contend with one step backward. This workshop explores this experience, how it works for us, affects our creativity and how it is in our life, using guided meditation and art making. Participants will make collages and drawings using various materials such as watercolor, pencil, crayon, etc.

Open to all. To reserve a place, call or email Nancy at 917-572-7461, nancy@nancyazara.com
