

Four Blue Summer Leaves, 2015, rubbing on mylar, 100" x 67"

NANCY AZARA

Fragments/ Working Toward the Whole

at her studio in Woodstock, NY

Saturday, July 11th, 10-5pm, $90

So much of our lives are lived in fragments, parts, sections. This workshop, using meditation and art making, will identify and examine these aspects of our life, explore the connections, and make art from them.

Open to all.

To reserve a place, call or email Nancy at 917-572-7461, nancy@nancyazara.com

Nancy Azara is a sculptor who works in wood and whose scroll rubbings and tracings are collaged on mylar and paper. Her work has been shown internationally most recently at St. Ann's Church in Brooklyn Heights, the SACI Gallery in Florence, Italy and the Asya Geisberg Gallery in Chelsea. She is the author of Spirit Taking Form: Making a Spiritual Practice of Making Art available through Red Wheel/Weiser. She has taught many workshops and classes. <http://www.nancyazara.com>